UMJETNOST U MRAČNIM VREMENIMA 101 novinska karikatura o jugoslovenskim sukobima od 1991. do 2001.

NOVINSKE KARIKATURE I RAT

Novinske karikature su zaseban svijet.
Jednim potezom olovke autor mora zadobiti pažnju čitatelja. Odmah.
Ispričati mu priču koja mu nešto govorи.
Po mogućnosti njegovu vlastitu priču...

U mjesecima koji su prethodili
jugoslovenskom sukobu i za vrijeme ratnih
godina novinske karikature su cvale u lokalnoj
štampi u vrlo različitim grafičkim stilovima.
Bio je to dokaz izuzetnog stvaralaštva. Iako je teško ocijeniti njihov utjecaj, novinske
karikature su pridonijele stvaranju javnog
mišljenja - dobrom i lošem - u vremenu koje
je prije svega bilo obilježeno neizvjesnošću.

IZLOŽBA

UMJETNOST U MRAČNIM VREMENIMA
je jedinstvena izložba 101 novinske karikature iz svih perspektiva na temu

ART IN DARK TIMES

101 press cartoons related to the Yugoslav conflicts
from 1991 to 2001

PRESS CARTOONS AND WAR

The press cartoon is a world of its own.
With a stroke of the pencil, its author has to catch the reader's eye. Immediately.
Tell him a story that means something.
If possible from his own history...

In the months leading up to the Yugoslav conflict and during the years of war, press cartoons flourished in the local press with some very different graphic styles. Testifying to exceptional creativity. And shaping public opinion - for better and for worse - at a time marked above all by uncertainty.

AN EXHIBITION

ART IN DARK TIMES is a unique exhibition of 101 press cartoons from all perspectives on the Yugoslav conflicts drawn by renowned cartoonists and illustrators from the former Yugoslavia.

The exhibition covers the pre-war
period (1990-1991), the wars in Bosnia-Herzegovina and Croatia (1991-1995)
and the conflict and epilogue in Serbia and Kosovo (1996-2001).

The 101 press cartoons were issued in various publications and newspapers printed mainly in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia and Serbia.
